EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

1. The TITLE has been amended as follows:

~~Use of Vascular Endothelial Growth Factor in the Treatment of Erectile Dysfunction~~Treatment of Erectile Dysfunction by Injection of Nucleic Acids encoding VEGF into the Corpora Cavernosa.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant has argued that there exists no reasonable expectation of success in the obviousness-type rejection made by the Examiner (Argument of 4/10/09, pp. 4-8). The Examiner, upon further consideration, agrees with the argument in general. To wit, Isner is limited to local administration, through direct contact by balloon catheter, while Lowery is drawn to the more-well-understood administration of vasodilators. Given the other enablement arguments (not those of the 12/4/08 OA, but those of the 1/13/06 OA), it is clear that such showing in the Art is insufficient to enable vasculogenesis by a nucleic acid encoding VEGF, as

Art Unit: 1633

VEGF may not be reasonably expected to work outside direct administration to the interior wall of the vessels, as performed by Isner. Hence, the rejection of Claims 9, 10, 13, 18, 19, and 20, as rejected under 35 USC 103(a), as obvious over US PAT NOs 5,652,225 (to Isner) and 6,100,286 (to Lowrey), as further evidenced by Christ (1995) Urol. Clin. N. Am., 22(4): 727-45, are withdrawn. However, for the record it should be noted that Applicant's arguments against Christ were irrelevant, because whatever Applicant states, Christ was cited by Applicant's specification as evidence that the Artisan understood vascular insufficiency was a contributing form of erectile dysfunction.

Hence, Claims 9, 10, 13, 18, 19, and 20 are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to ROBERT M. KELLY whose telephone number is (571)272-0729. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 9:00am-5:00pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Joseph Woitach can be reached on (571) 272-0739. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
